

1ST National Conference

TIDES OF CHANGE
CURRENTS OF INNOVATION

CAPWHN 2011 VICTORIA
October 27 - 29

The Fairmont Empress Hotel
and Victoria Conference Centre

October 27-29, 2011

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

Conference Objectives

CASTING OUR NET: expanding our understanding of nursing practice related to women's health, perinatal, and neonatal care.

APPRECIATING DIVERSITY: exploring how culture affects women and their families, focusing on Aboriginal and global maternal and women's health perspectives

CONVERGING STREAMS: creating opportunities for dialogue and learning together

MIGRATING HOME: exploring creative possibilities for knowledge exchange with our local communities of practice

Keynote speakers include:

Shelagh Rogers, Dr. Elaine Carty, Debbie Fraser Askin, Linda Tarrant, Dr. Charlotte Reading

Focused workshop topics: (more to be announced)

- Nurses Influencing Health Policy Part II – taking next steps
- Creating Connected Organizations with Linda Tarrant
- How to get Published with Debbie Fraser Askin
- Social Media and the Law with Elaine Borg from the Canadian Nurses Protective Society
- Motivational Interviewing 101

Choose from 48 concurrent sessions and view 25 poster presentations

Participate in personal and professional networking with peers

Experience an evening reception in the First Peoples Gallery at the Royal British Columbia Museum

For travel and information on booking your accommodation, visit the Canadian Association of Perinatal & Women's Health Nurses at www.capwhn.ca